Vol. 41 No. 51

40 YEARS AGO

The Jeffersonian still expanding, went to seven columns to the page from a six-column, four-page paper, Thursday, May 7, 1908, forty years ago. It had rather live in a country having newspapers and no laws "quoth the editor, "than in one having laws and no newspapers." Both advertising and news content had materially increased. The Jefferson County Sunday School Association had held a successful convention the Friday and Saturday with prominent workers from all parts of the state present. Louis V. Wilson presided over the proceedings of the inter-mediate department at the Methodist Church with other topics were discussed. Work of the adult grades for the past year were reviewed at the Christian Church. Prof. W. J. McGlothlin, presiding. Burglary was rife in the Oklahoma neighborhood, several residences having been entered and money taken. Mrs. Trachel lost fifty dollars and a watch from her home. The house of Jim Gary was entered, with jewelry and a child's saving bank taken. Police-man Pete Fisher was searching for a descriptive article by "One of the Residents." Population was steadily increasing, new homes were being built. Business was good. A restaurant and a large schoolhouse were late additions. Eighty were enrolled in the school, and the two teachers were giving faithful service. Mrs. H. Hikes was conducting Sunday school. Rev. H. N. Nesbitt, of Jeffersontown, was preaching there every first and third Sunday. Heavy blasting in a nearby quarry was sending rocks high in the air, some falling on roofs, but no one was injured. No one was injured. But many other things were damaged by the falling rocks. While some say Fern Creek "hasn't any ferns," the writer informs, "they are mistaken. There are plenty of ferns in this neighborhood, moss, beautiful flowers and other such things." There were many beauty spots among the cliffs and rocks to invite picnic parties and there was much visiting in the Fern Creek and Buechel neighborhood in good weather.

Prof. W. H. Scherfus of the University of Kentucky, addressed the Harrod's Creek Agricultural Society on corn Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Frederick, landing in one of the routes. No one was injured. But many other things were damaged by the falling rocks. While some say Fern Creek "hasn't any ferns," the writer informs, "they are mistaken. There are plenty of ferns in this neighborhood, moss, beautiful flowers and other such things." There were many beauty spots among the cliffs and rocks to invite picnic parties and there was much visiting in the Fern Creek and Buechel neighborhood in good weather.

John Stark bought a tract of land from Mrs. Ed Haves, writes the correspondent at Prestonia, and will shortly build a residence. Mrs. Charles Nachand, of Lyon, entertained the G. C. Club Thursday afternoon. The Worthington correspondent writes, and in spite of the rain and snow, there was good attendance. Les Lamb, letter carrier on R. R. No. 3, has sold his farm for $3,000, the Okolona correspondent writes, and has moved to Louisville. Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Orell, entertained their son, Robert Miller and wife, at 6 o'clock dinner Thursday. The Koonmole central plant opened Monday of this week after having been closed three weeks for repairs. Three hundred employees went back to work. A double wedding in the parlors of the Seelbach hotel took place Wednesday, March 29, when Miss Mary Elizabeth Raymon and Mr. Thomas Jefferson Cundiff, Miss Ida Moore and Mr. O. Gwynne Raymon, were made man and wife. Mr. Raymon and sister are from Shepherdsville, Miss Moore from Mr. Cundiff, from Louisville.

Newburg News
By Mrs. J. R. Stedley.
Very good attendance at Newburg Sunday; good sermon, subject, "Living in Christ." Several visitors present. The banner will go to Mrs. Stivers' class next Sunday. Mother's Day will be observed with a brief program next Sunday. All mothers invited. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Kaufman were visitors of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Cook and Mrs. J. H. Shively Thursday evening and we enjoyed them so much. Everybody is getting ready for strawberries and we hope for a big crop. So sorry to have missed Mrs. Carl Fry Friday when she called. Because of its strategic position and resources, the territory of Yugoslavia for centuries suffered various foreign invasions. With about 100,000 square miles and 15,000,000 people, Yugoslavia, embracing Serb, Croat, Slovenian, Macedonian and Montenegrin lands, was created as a modern state in 1918. After World War I, the country was occupied by Germany, and after liberation, the monarchy was replaced by a Federal People's Republic. Predominantly agricultural, Yugoslavia is now the principal mineral producer of the Balkans, and has a Five Year Industrialization Plan. Her U. S. Representative is Dr. Josip Vranes. Her flag is blue, white and red with a red star.

sympathy to the family of Mr. Stanley B. Jenks. Mr. Jenks and sisters when visiting Mr. and Mrs. Lee Suberland very often attended services at Newburg Church and we liked them very much. Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Shobe had a week-end visitor and brought him to services Sunday at Newburg. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Suberland were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Shively Saturday afternoon, and it always seems like old times for them to come and we look forward to their visits. Glad to hear a good report from the meeting at the home of Miss Emma and Mary Pagenbush. Mr. James Collings passed away last week at his home in Shepherdsville and was buried in Herborn Cemetery. Mr. Collings was a life long friend of the Hart family. Mr. and Mrs. Cook visited Mr. and Mrs. Edward and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Martin Sunday afternoon and took Mr. and Mrs. Hindle for a long drive through the beautiful knobs of South Park, Fairdale and Kenwood. Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Nebelt entertained friends and relatives from Louisville, Sunday. Newburgers are looking forward to a fish fry Saturday night, May 15th at the school-house.

her back on Sunday and spent the day meeting Fay's associates and attended church services. Mt. Washington Methodist Church will observe Mother's Day Sunday with the baptism of several babies. Rev. May's sermon subject for Sunday morning will be "A Happy Home" and in the evening he will preach on "Building on Christ." Mr. and Mrs. Martin Clark announce the marriage of their daughter, Frances to Mr. Kenneth O. Beach of Los Angeles, Calif. The marriage took place March 29 at 8:30 p.m. at the Wilshire Baptist Church. The bride wore a gown of white lace bodice and a triple skirt, a tiara of white net trimmed with seed pearls and carried white carnations. The groom wore a tuxedo. Mr. Joseph Gardner wore blue net and carried Talisman roses. The groom's brother, Mr. Lyle Beach was best man. The bride was given in marriage by Mr. Henry Porter, formerly of Mt. Washington. The altar was decorated with palms, white spring flowers and candles. The officiating minister was Mr. W. H. Brimstock, pastor of the church. The processional and recessional marches were played by the church organist and the soloist sang, "I Love You Truly," and "O Promise Me." A reception was given by Mrs. Gardner at her home immediately following the ceremony. Other guests at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Porter, Mr. Myrtle Porter, formerly of Mt. Washington. The couple will move their home to Bellflower, Calif. where he is employed by the Union Pacific Railroad. Mrs. Beach is currently attending U. S. C. Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Hendrix of town Wednesday. They were visiting in Nashville and decided to see her home town again. The dinner guests of her cousin, J. V. H. Smith, at the brief call on a number of relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maddox and son, Lovell of Nashville were here Thursday renewing some old friendships of long ago. This was the first time his wife and son had visited here. Mr. Maddox was a nephew of Mrs. Al Miller and spent much of his boyhood here when Mr. Miller was manager of the Granger Store (now Barnes Bros.) and the Cyclope Store. The death of Mrs. Katie Hoagland, wife of Clint Smith at Prospect was deeply felt by her many friends in this community where she was born and reared. Also the sudden death of Mr. Curt Moore was a shock to his many friends. He died suddenly while sitting in a car with a friend. Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Parrish's callers this week were Rev. and Mrs. E. H. Hendrix and son, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Maddox and son, Mrs. R. E. McAfee, Mrs. Bert Hall, Mrs. E. E. Pound and Kathryn, Messrs. R. H. Hall, Lee Wheeler, Les Parrish and Mr. A. Harris. YOU NEED THE TYING ACCURACY AND SPEEDABILITY of a JOHN DEERE Grain Binder
At harvest time, the true value of a grain binder is determined by the kind of bundles it makes and by its field dependability. John Deere gives you both. It's efficient binding unit, sowed for its remarkable tying accuracy and grain-saving ability, means out, well-tied bundles which are easier to shock or feed to the threshing. Users claim it seldom misses a bundle. Year after year, in standing, down, or sagged grain, the John Deere cuts cleanly... gives you the kind of time saving that is low operating expense... little time out for servicing and upkeep. Let us show you why it will pay you to own a John Deere. See us soon.
* We have a very limited stock of tractor and horse-drawn binders and suggest that you see us at once if you are interested in a binder for this year.

MELON CROP INSECTS
Before long, the seedlings of cucumbers, squashes, cantaloupes
and watermelons will break through — a critical time for starting the control of striped cucumber beetles. This is the time that causes the complaint about cucumbers dying overnight. What actually happens, however, is that the "over-wintered" beetles dive into the soil about the seedlings made, and there they lay their eggs. The beetles may kill some plants
outright, or wound them so badly
that they will die later.

The idea in the control of this insect is to sift a poison dust in to the soil cracks to kill the worms there, and to continue dusting about the centers of the hills to keep the adults at bay.

Two dusts are recommended,
one home-made one of calcium arsenate and "fiber-plaster" (never time), one part to 15; the other,
a ready-mixed dust containing 5 percent DDT. The best way to use either is sifting through a sack of porous material.

For either, dusting should start when the hills begin to

"hump." With the home-made dust, at least 10 applications
should follow, three days apart.
With the DDT dust, the interval
should be seven days and there should be at least five dustings, all at the center of the hills. Thus about 30 days of protection is given, but doubling the number of applications will pay. The DDT dust costs more than the other, but rotenone and tobacco
are not stout enough to control
it. Later, there has come on the market a new and more powerful contact killer, Sabadilla, that is deadly to even adult hard-shelled bugs. Or, the strategy may be used to keep under close observation a handy clutch of eggs, and when these hatch, give a general dusting, paying particular attention to the leaves' undersides and the center of the plants.

MEAT CUT Quiz

Q. What is the name of this cut of meat?
A. This is a rib pork chop.
Q. Where does the cut come from, and how is it identified?
A. This cut is taken from the pork loin. It contains only the eye muscle of the meat (as compared to the loin chop which contains the tenderloin muscle as well). It is cut thick, every other chop will have a rib bone. This chop will have a rib bone.

Q. How should this cut be prepared?
A. Like all other cuts of pork except ribs, the rib chop is braised, or cooked with a liquid. Because pork requires a longer cooking time than other meats to be completely cooked, the presence of moisture prevents a dryness that otherwise might develop. Not only is thorough cooking important, but a richly developed sauce is also desirable. To this end, brown the chops well before cooking in a small amount of liquid (if desired they may first be dipped in flour as an egg-and-crumbs coating). After the meat is browned, add a small amount of liquid, then cover and cook about 45 to 60 minutes, depending on the thickness.

A birthday dinner was given Sunday in honor of Mrs. Rich Brown in her home. Those to enjoy this much-delightful occasion were: Messrs and Mesdames J. T. Stevens, Bill Brown, Sr., Johnnie Douglas and family, Elmer Alcorn and family, Richard Cox and son, Delbert Montgomery and family, Freddie Armstrong and son, Ota Jenkins and son, Lawrence Thompson and family, Woodrow Brown and family, Tom Carlin, Misses Gilda Hinesley and Wynona Tyler. Afternoon callers in this same home were: Miss Gladys Sparrow, Mr. J. R. Buftin and Russell Smith. A bountiful dinner was served and ten homemade cakes. All left wishing Mrs. Brown many more happy birthdays.

Little Miss Peggy Whitehouse was carried out and taken riding Sunday afternoon, which she did most enjoy after being in bed over four months. She is able now to take a few steps with the help of someone holding her.

Glad to report Mrs. Everett Stevens much improved, in fact so much, she doesn't have to go back to her doctor this week.

Mrs. Stella Shake was taken to the Kentucky Baptist Hospital one day last week. Hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Marcella (Harp) Coghill and Mrs. Edna (Harp) Cleveland, from California and Mr. and Mrs. James Harp and children and Mrs. Frank Harp, all of Louisville, called on Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Whitehouse and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Owen Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Owen had as dinner guests Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Edna (Harp) Cleveland, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Owen and daughter, Roberta, Mr. and Mrs. Erol Getty and son, Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Whitehouse and son, Ben, Miss June Gallahue, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Owen and family. Afternoon callers were Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Medcalf, of Shepherdsville.

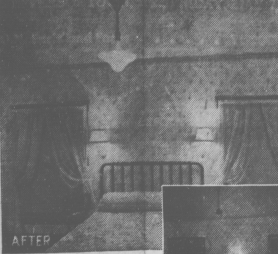

Mrs. Auther McGill called one afternoon this week on Mrs. Irene Whitehouse.

Mrs. Wynonia Knopp called one afternoon this week on Mrs. Wade Hale.

Mrs. Ben Tyler called on Mrs. Chas. Whitehouse one afternoon this week.

It was Mrs. Bill Brown, Sr.

FARM HOME LIGHTING

Editor's note: (This is another in the series of articles on lighting the farm and answering the questions most often asked of General Electric lighting specialists.)

What farm woman wouldn't be proud to usher guests into the cheerful bedroom pictured above? Its smooth modern lighting gives the room a feeling of cozy comfort that invites repose and relaxation from the cares of the day.

However, this same farm bedroom enjoyed little use until its lighting was inexpensively modernized. Although it was papered in a delicate pastel patterned paper, the room's lighting from the lone lamp above the bed made the whole room look gloomy and uninviting.

When General Electric home lighting specialists were asked for advice on how to make it

APP-STROBEL
Mr. and Mrs. James M. Strobel are honeymooning in Niagara Falls, since their marriage on Saturday April 24 at 9 a.m. in St. Columba Church. The Rev. J. T. Spalding performed the double ring ceremony. She was Miss Dorothy Louise App, daughter of Mr. Joseph App, and Mrs. Lillian V. App. He is the son of Mr. John Strobel.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of cream satin and imported lace made with long fitted bodice and collar of lace folded around the neck. The long light sleeves were edged with lace falling over the hands. The very full skirt ending in long train was worn over a hoop. Her finger tip veil of french illusion was adorned by a tiara of pearlized orange blossoms. She carried white orchids surrounded by lilies of the valley.

Mrs. Virginia Link (in deep pink) was her sister's matron of honor; Miss Doris Jean Gladie in blue gown, Mrs. George Bernauer in pale peach, Miss Cleo Alberts in aqua, Miss Carmel in pale yellow, were bridesmaids; Miss Julia Hemming in deep pink was the flower girl.

The gowns of dotted marquisette were made with pointed bodice, off the shoulder neckline, the full skirts were four ruffles of ruffles. They wore matching hats and carried white and colonial bouquets of spring flowers.

Mr. Charles Strobel served as his brother's best man. The ushers were: Messrs. Donald Lambertus, Jack Lewis, James M. Amk, and George V. Page. Mr. Master Michael Lee Davidson, ringbearer carried the rings in a bouquet of spring flowers.

More than 500 guests attended the reception held at the home of the bride's aunt, Mrs. N. J. Martin and Mrs. Martin, 423 Brown Lane. There were a number of out-of-town guests. Mr. and Mrs. Strobel will make their home in Chicago.

FARM FACTS WORTH KNOWING

Q. How much window space should be provided in broiler houses?
A. There should be one square foot of window space to each ten square feet of floor space.

Q. Which is better for the brood hen during gestation — hand-feeding or self-feeding?
A. At the Research Farm of the National Poultry Company, hand-feeding is recommended from breeding to hatching time. Hand-feeding during gestation affords a degree of control seldom attained with self-feeding. This accurate control of conditions influences:

1. Ease of farrowing
2. Lactation and nursing the litter
3. Vigor of pips
4. Livability of the litter
5. Final returns and profit

Q. Does what is fed to the brooding flock have any effect on the hatchability of eggs?
A. Yes, to give the chicks the proper start in life, it is essential that the brooding flock be fed a ration that contains all of the necessary vitamins, minerals and essential ingredients. Breeding is important, but even precaution should be taken in the selection of the brooders. The breeder ration should be started at least a month before eggs are to be saved for hatching purposes, and the brooding flocks should be watched closely to see that they are in good condition.

Q. Is it better to bottle-feed or pan-feed young chicks?
A. Generally, pan-feeding is preferred to bottle feeding, as it is quicker, the utensils are more easily cleaned, and rows of pans can be used so that several kinds can be fed at one time.

Q. How should the brooding house be kept?
A. Generally, pan-feeding is preferred to bottle feeding, as it is quicker, the utensils are more easily cleaned, and rows of pans can be used so that several kinds can be fed at one time.
